Maintaining Dignity and Decorum on the Campus

An academic campus requires an environment of dignity and decorum befitting to education institution, which entails to adherence to general code of conduct and behavior among the educational fraternity on the Campus i. e. the students and staff – Teaching & Non-Teaching. The Head of the Department, Faculty Deans, Dean – Students' Affairs, School Directors, and other Sectional-heads will remain proactive for overseeing Dignity and Decorum over the Campus. Several committees like Anti Ragging, Students' Discipline, Examination Vigilance, and Hostels as well will review from time to time the state of Code of Conduct over the campus, and will take necessary step for any deviation if found in terms of general discipline, fair behavior and dignity for everyone.
