NCC CATC II REPORT

Palak Rajput

NCC 3rd year cadets went for their combined annual training camp II on 18th September 2021 which was held at NCC Group Headquarters Ahmedabad. Here is the day wise schedule and activities They had undergone during these days of camp.

Day 1 –

On the very first day of the camp, firstly we have to give our covid- 19 rapid test which was conducted by the medical team. Then we were allotted rooms and the PI staff gave a brief information about the camp rules and regulations including the 9 days schedule. In the evening we were divided into four companies ie Alpha, Bravo, Charlie and Delta as were 280 girls in the camp.

Day 2 –

For all the nine days we had PT/Yoga session early in the morning at 6:30 am. After breakfast we had our drill practice for two hrs and were given refreshments. During the lectures in the noon we were taught about basics of handling the 0.22 rifle which is called the weapon training. Then in the evening we had a motivational talk by CO sir Colonel Sajan Thomas.

Day 3-

Rifle shooting was scheduled for this day. Cadets were sent according to their company to the firing range but due to bad weather not all of us were able to do rifle shooting. At the time of lectures, we learnt map reading, how one can find his location with the help of compass and map, different types north, symbols and maps etc. After lectures we had fun time during the games period in the evening.

Day 4-

We had PT period and squad drill in the morning, learnt about different organizations of infantry battalion and its weapons. In the noon we had a guest lecture on communications skills, they taught us basics and types of communication through different activities. This helped us in improving our communication skills. And then a motivational talk by camp commandant sir on how to find oneself.

Day 5 –

On this day we had poster making and debate competitions in which some of us took part to represent our bravo company. The topic for debate was Social media is advantageous or not and the topic for poster making was Save Environment. Lectures on mode of entry into army, CRPF and Police.

Day 6 –

Squad drill and regular lectures by PI staff on handling 0.22 rifle. Guest lecture by the fire safety department of Prahallad agar. They briefed us about duties of their team, what is fire, how does it occur, types of fire and methods to control it. Game period – badminton, volleyball, KHO-KHO etc.

Day 7 –

Squad drill and a lecture on weapon training which included parts of different rifles like 0.22, and SLR, judging distance, types of obstacles and positions of firing. As on the last day we were going to have cultural programme, some of us took part in group dance and so evening time we had practice time. Competitions of volleyball and public speaking between the four companies. Motivational talk by Group Commander sir Brigadier N.K Raizyada.

Day 8-

This day was the cultural evening night. All the participants practiced and performed so well in order to bring their company in the first position. We all performed different dance forms, nukkad natak , solo performances, group song and individual talents.
