22/08/2022 to 29/08/2022

The Combined Annual Training Camp VIII for NCC second and third-year cadets was held at NCC Group Headquarters Ahmedabad on August 22, 2022. This report details the tasks cadets performed over these eight days of camp. First, the medical staff had us undergo a COVID-19 rapid test on the first day of camp. Cadets were then given our rooms, and the PI staff briefly explained the camp's policies and procedures, including its eight-day schedule. Around 350 cadets were separated into four companies for the day, namely Alpha, Bravo, Charlie, and Delta. SW's belonged to the Bravo Company for the whole eight days.

PT/Yoga sessions were conducted for eight days, starting at 6:30 a.m. After breakfast, NCC cadets engaged in two hours of drill practice while being served refreshments. During the noontime lectures, all the students learned the fundamentals of operating the 0.22 rifle, also known as weapon training. Furthermore, our college students participated in mess and quarter guard duty. There was a room inspection for cleanliness one day. Later, in the evening, CO sir Colonel Shajan Thomas addressed the battalion.

One day was designated for rifle shooting. Based on their company, cadets were dispatched to the CSD depot's fire range. During lectures, students learned how to read maps, use a compass and a map to locate ourselves, and various sorts of north, symbols, and charts, among other things. Following the talks, everyone had a good time playing games in the evening. They learned about several infantry battalion formations and their weaponry in another presentation. SW's had poster-making and drill competitions on one of the days, and some cadets participated in promoting our Bravo company. Women's Empowerment and Saving Girl Children were the subjects of poster-making. The cultural evening occurred last Wednesday night. Every participant worked hard and delivered their performance.

An RBI discussion on digital banking was held in the evening. Another program for medal distribution was held in the auditorium on the second to last day. On the final morning of the camp, there was a ceremony for awarding certificates.
